Webinar: Steering Career Transitions Nationally and Globally

By Raza Abbas

Sunday, January 5/Monday, January 6

Are your clients ready to take the first steps towards meaningful change in their career? During this webinar, we will review the formula for building a dream career and explore what it takes to make an effective career transition nationally and globally.

Target Audience: Millennials, Generation Y and mid- career professionals

You will learn how to help clients:

- to choose or modify a career for a career and life of satisfaction and success.
- to get there from their current position
- to design their future career for living a life they love
